PROJECTS

Decisions | github.com/garrettj94/ToughDecisions | toughdecisions.herokuapp.com

- Tough Decisions is a MERN Stack application that allows users to play a multiplayer game where they and other participants can create a question or prompt, and have all participants vote on which option they prefer. The results are then displayed, along with a percentage for the number of votes for each option.
- Created the game logic and multiplayer functionality using socket.io.
- This project utilized MongoDB with GraphQL, Express.js, React, Node.js, and socket.io

Flutter | github.com/ChristianSmith46/Flutter | flutter.herokuapp.com

- Flutter is a project aimed to create a blogging space for people to show what they have worked on or learned in the tech space. This project was specifically aimed to promote "learning in public" in order to show a person's progression.
- In charge of querying the database to display blog posts and integrate the user search functionality.
- The tools used to create this project were Express.js for the server, handlebars to display content, and MySQL with Sequelize for the data management
